WORK EXPERIENCE

Junior Web Developer Intern | Piksel - Milano, Italy                                       Oct 2025 - Present

- Currently redesigning the company website to improve layout, structure, and overall user experience using Figma.
- Collaborating closely with the Senior Product Designer (my mentor) to refine UX decisions, maintain consistency, and ensure high-quality design outcomes.
- Working directly with the CEO for continuous feedback, aligning the visual direction and content structure with business goals.
- Created complete low-fidelity wireframes defining the site's structure and user flow; currently developing high-fidelity designs and interactive prototypes, with plans to move into the development phase next.
